Pro-rating of the tuition is available only for those who are scheduled to travel during the semester. Pro-rating requires approval before the start of the semester. No more than two classes may be pro-rated during any one semester. The early discount cannot be combined with pro-rating.

No refunds are given once the semester has started. A 20% charge is applied for refunds before the semester begins.

In case of inclement weather, classes will be cancelled and rescheduled.
